DOWNLOAD HERE

Electronically-challenged blues-hop from Texas with plenty of slide guitar, moanin' vocals, screamin'harmonica, and DJ trickery. 14 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, BLUES: Funky Blues Details: Providing an ode to an unusual blend of musical spices, fruitCake-superBeing mixes up a stew of those genres, ending with a satisfying hiccup which has spread throughout the teXas music scene. Lyrically, fruitCake preaches the 3rd person view of everyday life with the stamina and persona of the holiest of tent evangelists. superBeing's tailored blues riffs take traditional guitar chords on a new slide while creating the simplest of hookable melodies. Sonically the band shakes hands with electronica dance and hip-hop, allowing dash (spelled "-") to keep the limpest bodies in constant motion. Hum MuthaBucka lays down the hot sauce bass, and Hugh G. Wrections licks down the rhythm to round out the percussive tendencies. The final addition of sparkling-voiced Sistah Wax lays a comfy, down-home layer to the grooves. As an remarkably entertaining staged event, The fruitCake-superBeing Show puts across a persona that accompanies the music with characters straight out of a tale of barbeques and redemption in the South. Since the release of their debut CD Electronically-Challenged Blues Hop from teXas, fruitCake-superBeing have propagated their music across the state winning over audiences with delightful shock and memories of good times. Now with the latest album for 2006 completed, entitled "DevelopMental TeXas How-Now", they are prepared to light the fires once more! RIYL - Beck, ZZ Top, Jamie Lidell, Gnarl's Barkley
