Smooth sultry voice, with lyric based melodies. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Julie Gribble is currently working with producer Dan Lavery of the grammy nominated band Tonic. May 2005, they will independently release Julie's second record, "So Typical." Currently, she has been named one of the best new artists on KLOS 95.5fm local licks program. Julie will appear live on the Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson on CBS mid October. The track Hard to Say has been featured on the Lifetime movie Dive at Clauson's Peir. She is also always working with new producers and talented songwriters, always looking for a great song. Gribble's music is lyric driven and smooth with sultry melodies that rock with her four piece band or solo. Fans and industry alike are calling Julie's music 'real' and 'captivating'. Her knack for storytelling offers raw emotion and most importantly a way to relate with audience of all ages. Stage performances of Julie's are sexy and emotional. Having lived in cities such as Atlanta, NYC, London and Los Angeles, Julie has no shortage of unique life experiences to reflect upon in her lyrics. Julie, when asked about why she started writing music says, "I've been writing poetry since I was really young and always wanted to find a way to share it. The lyrics have always been such a huge part of my life, inside and out, a way to tell my story. Music has given me that opportunity to speak freely without limitations." The "So Typical" tour will be kicked off in Julie's hometown, Atlanta, GA in early May 2005. Tracks from this record have been featured on Nickelodeon shows Nick and Drake and also Zoey 101, while being played on KLOS 95.5fm, KBPK 90.1fm, and indieliveradio.com, live365.com, swaythisway.com, alexadigital.com. Tracks from her first album under the name, "Jules" on Pie Records have been broadcast on E! True Hollywood Story numerous times and has been used in indie films. Also, the album within a few months of being released has had airplay on radio stations California, NewYork,Belgium,Canada, and New Zealand. People are saying... "Gribble is a work of art, both musically and lyrically, and a true unknown treasure of the LA underground. She mixes styles with ease, flowing from one genre to another." -Bob Leggett for Music Connection Magazine "It's Fabulous" -Craig Ferguson, Talk Show Host talking about the So Typical record "Julie Gribble is back. Armed with new songs, Julie continues to seduce audiences with her introspective lyrics and melodic hooks. A rising star to watch in the coming year". -Paul Gordon Tony award winning songwriter/Head of Indieeclectic "Julie's singing is 'real' and that gives you connection and union with the singer/songwriter" -Tracy Thackrah 90.1fm KBPK "I thought your voice was wonderful, the music refreshing and I like how you are true to yourself with your music. You're not jumping on the next bandwagon; you're real doing what you love and do best." -Terry Gladstone 95.5fm KLOS
