 An intoxicating blend of instrumental Jazz Electronica with a healthy dose of Funk ... music for life, inspiration for the soul  11 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: For an independent review of this CD please visit soniccuriosity.com/sc223.htm Do you like your Jazz a little Popy? And your Rock a little Funky? How about some New Age with your Dance Electronica? Celtic Folk blended with some World Fusion? Need some Punk in your Opera? (OK I'm joking with this last one). Well if you're still reading this I believe you are in for a treat ... enter "Life Soul". This unique album is the culmination of several years work and brings you many flavors of musical genres to whet your sonic palette. From the heart-pounding excitement of 'Digitalis' to the heart-wrenching cries of 'Nine Eleven', this CD brings you honest-to-goodness vibe music to stimulate the senses ... music for life, inspiration for the soul. Why not put some 'Life Soul' into your music collection today? From an early age I started listening to music outside of the norm ... I remember that the first album I ever purchased was 'Kimono my House' by Sparks; I just wasn't a big fan of the everyday radio airplay music. When others touted Pink Floyd and Led Zeppelin I much preferred Brand X; while my friends would rave about AC/DC I was much happier connecting with Camel; and when Foreigner was the flavor of the month I would satisfy my aural senses with Weather Report. I needed more intrigue in my music to stave off my very short attention span. In my late teens and early twenties I played bass in a few local bands but I was never really that good and didn't take it too seriously. I was frustrated with dysfunctional band members and grew tired of playing 'Johnny B Goode' to drunken audiences. So nowadays I much prefer to lock myself in my private recording studio and create my own compositions from scratch ... there is no-one else to blame but me! If I want to add some strings or horns, maybe a solo violin or slap bass line there's nobody to stop me! I am the master of my own domain (to quote one famous Seinfeld episode). My brother 'Garance of Arabia'

(name given to him by a Saudi Prince) has and always will be a major inspiration to me and co-wrote both 'Toe Jam' and 'Psychodrama'; arguably two of the strongest tracks on this CD. His artistic creativity is also spotlighted on the CD front cover. Nice one Bro! Otherwise the remaining tracks are my own original compositions performed, recorded and mixed by yours truly. I thank Erik Ames of SuperDigital in Portland, OR for a masterful mastering job! Anyways ... I sincerely hope you enjoy the music samples provided here by CDBaby and if you so choose I thank you in advance for your purchase. Warm Wishes, Kevin. Additional notes ... 'Anniversary Dance' was awarded 1st place in PSA Song Contest (Instrumental category, 2000). 'Toe Jam' was placed as 'Finalist' in UK Songwriting Contest (Dance category, 2004). 'Digitalis' was placed as 'Finalist' in UK Songwriting Contest (Dance category, 2003). (competitions open to worldwide entrants). Kevin has also received two 'Honorable Mentions' from Billboard World Song Contest entries (tracks not featured on this CD). This is not a CD-R ! The CD was duplicated from a glass master by the professionals at SuperDigital, Portland, Oregon.
