Acoustic Jazz/Folk. A Great Voice singing Great Songs 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: like Ani Details: It's been 3 years since the release of Creation - my debut album. That recording was 2 years in the making. I've experienced and written so much since then. I DID NOT want to wait another two years to make an impression of being a mother, encountering real fear, beginning to tour, falling in love with an old friend, learning more what it is to be me ... So much to say. So, I sat down with my digital 8 track and poured heart, voice and guitar into this simple, but I hope accurate depiction of where I was July 2002. My good friend, Matt Holsen recorded all the "solo" tracks, whereas the others are home produced. Straight outta the bedroom. Local writer, Alex Kafka says, " It feels like having (the intimacy and honesty) of a house concert at my fingertips..." I'm also back in the studio with Jeff Gruber at Blue House, working on another fully produced CD. Stay Tuned In the meantime, this is where I am. Looking Forward to so much more.
