She worked shows with her Dad, who is a professional musician, on and off through her school years. Lisa formed her first band, just after high school. She was the lead vocalist and played Bass Guitar in the band. This ultimately led to her being noticed by a local band, Vince Vance and The Valiants, which had had a taste of some major success. Lisa worked the road with them for the better part of five years. During that time they recorded the song "All I Want For Christmas Is You". Yes, Lisa is the featured vocalist on that recording. As of this writing, "All I Want For Christmas Is You" (sung by Lisa Layne) is now recognized as the #7 Christmas song of all time. With the success of "All I Want For Christmas Is You" Lisa moved to Nashville. In Nashville she joined a very successful Beach Music Band and toured with them until 1995. In early '95 Lisa won the role of Patsy Cline in the first National Tour of a "Closer Walk with Patsy Cline" She toured with that tour for the better part of two years before she joined the Nashville troupe as the lead in that same show. She performed at the Texas Troubadour Theater in Nashville doing the Patsy show from '98 thru 2000. When it comes to singing a Patsy Cline song, NOBODY can touch Lisa Layne. She has the gift.
