lynnbrownellmusic.com! Lynn Brownell's "Guardian Angel" is a deeply moving collection of original songs expanding over 3 decades. This CD evokes various feelings from loss to sheer elation, and the meaning of life. Lynn Brownell is a Singer/Songwriter/Pianist living and working in NYC. Originally from Minnesota, Lynn began her professional career as a performer in 1980, but her music goes back much farther than that. The Brownell household was filled with music long before she was ever born. Being the last born of 4 children, Lynn was exposed to amazing music even when in the womb. Her Father, Ron Brownell, was an icon in the Twin Cities, best known for his flawless, floating technique on the Wurlitzer Organ, but also plays piano, accordion and paints beautifully in oil and watercolor. Lynn Brownell played almost every 5 star and restaurant in Minneapolis and St.Paul, until she moved to NYC in 1999. Since moving to New York, Lynn Brownell has put out 7 CDs: 1.Guardian Angel (originals), 2.Think of Me (originals), 3.Lynn Brownell, Singer/Songwriter/Pianist (originals), 4.So, I Ask You (spiritual), 5.A Minnesota Christmas (holiday favorites), 6.Why Not Broadway? (showtunes, standards), 7.Lounge (80's piano lounge) NEW YORK REFERENCES: Tavern on the Green, Paddy Murphy, Kennedy's, Colonial Springs Golf Club, The Inn at New Hyde Park, Benvenuti, Tutto Bene, Blu Ardesia, Hilton Rye Town, Bouterin, Just Arthur's, John Duck Jr., Inn at Pound Ridge, Europa, CB's Gallery, Caffè on the Green, Danny's Skylight Room, Lisenda, Riverview, Divino Ristorante, Cassablanca, Grove Street Cafe, The Kitano, Rip Tide, Brasserie Julien, Calos Cafe, The Ramada Plaza, Baby Grand, La Piazzetta, Carmella's, and I was on the Joey Reynolds show on WOR Radio.
