The genre spectrum is rather wide, but is like one road trip over time and space. 17 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Lounge, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: It's not about learning the music. It's about finding yourself in the music. Finding a resonance where your voice and the voices of those around you speak in their natural harmony. This is the approach we've taken with the creation in this music. The players were coached in feelings. Words. Dreams. The themes were stated simply, as you express a topic for conversation. Or a meal to be shared and enjoyed. The sessions took place in landfills, studios out in the country, studios in California, studios in NYC and garages in the suburbs. The musicians would stand in a circle under the sun, in the corners of rooms or in separate rooms only connected by sound. The situations were all chosen to help the music surprise us. And it did. The genre spectrum on this disc is rather wide, but to us feels like one road trip over time and space. We hope you enjoy the journey as much as we did.
