Contemporary songs and atmospheres, which follow each other like sound worlds apart, amongst India, South America and west tradition...a mental and emotional journey. 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: World Fusion, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Composer and guitarist who shrinks from everything can produce barriers and distinctions. The research of a personal sound, the journeys in various countries of the world and his innate eclecticism, spur him to create original music which synthesizes tensions and trends of today's world. In his music you can perceive an harmonic coexistence of Indian, African and South American music, jazz, electronic and contemporary music. All that is well documented in his record production ("E' vento" -Un in verso, 1995, "Dancing in the light of the full moon" -Amiata records, 1996, "Misterios" -Dona Ruy project - Harmony, 1996, "Urbino" - Amiata records, 1998) in which he applies himself as composer, interpreter and arranger and realizes collaborations with musicians of different cultural and geographic background (George Aghedo, Markus Stockhausen, Irio De Paula, Krishna Bhatt, Massimo Manzi, Stefano Scodanibbio). With "I VU DI" Paolo composed a series of inconsequential views about his world in a simply and deep form. Travel notes emotionally written in the intimacy of his studio. "I VU DI" is not a patinated cd, it's music that points directly to the heart and won't fail to move and to warm up. Another release from Vel Net! Please check Laraaji and Girasole cds
