

Mp3 Patty Harper & Faultline - Blues You Can Feel

DOWNLOAD HERE

Bluesy, Jazzy, Rock with Awesome Guitar Work Super Strong Vocals (Steely Dan meets Etta James) 11
MP3 Songs BLUES: Jazzy Blues, BLUES: Blues Vocals Details: Patty Harper Faultline Rock*Blues*R&B Patty Harper Faultline is a five piece, Memphis based, House Rockin' Band with an eclectic repertoire which consists of lots of great classic rock old-school, dance floor packing, R&B classics mixed with a variety of crowd pleasing blues favorites. Vocalist, Patty Harper has been raising the roof belting out the blues rock since hooking up with guitarist Steve Harper in California in 1992. Prior to that time, she had sung various styles of music including Top 40 pop, jazz and rock opera throughout the U.S. Europe, with performances in England, France, Germany, Switzerland Holland at such prestigious venues as The Montreaux Jazz Festival. Her musical journey with Steve Harper began about 14 years ago in Southern California, where they worked steadily at various rock blues venues, sharing the stage with the likes of Coco Montoya, Walter Trout Billy Preston headlining annual events Fundraisers for The American Cancer Society, The Humane Society, The Riverside Philharmonic various annual concert series for Cal State University SBDO The City of SBDO. They subsequently relocated to Las Vegas, Nevada where they took the stage at area clubs, biker bars casinos including The Images Cabaret at The Stratosphere Towers, The MGM Grand Adventures Theme Park, The Blue Note Jazz Club, The Traveling Vietnam Wall at "Red, Hot Blues" - a fundraiser for families of victims of Sept. 11th, held at The Hard Rock Cafe.
While in Vegas, they recorded their first studio CD "Blues You Can Feel." In the winter of 2002, they packed up the dogs the guitars made the move to Memphis where they made their partnership official by getting hitched on the rooftop of The Peabody Hotel spent their wedding night playing a gig on Beale making music sharing wedding cake with the audience. They are happy to have played many Beale Street venues including Elvis Presley's Memphis, The Blues City Cafe where they played a private party for HBO, Showtime Team Tyson for The Rumble on The River Boxing Event, as well as at The King's Palace Patio, The Tap Room, for Memphis in May, Labor Day Music Festival, New Year's Eve, etc at W.C. Handys Blues Hall at The Rum Boogie, where they recorded their CD, Live On Beale. They are honored to have been finalists, coming in Second Place, in The 2005 Memphis Blues Society Battle of The Blues Competition. Faultline can be heard on the Rock 103 Great Unsigned radio show on Sunday nights from 9-11 are proud to have been chosen, out of literally hundreds of bands, to participate in the first ever ROCK 103 Great Unsigned Summer Concert Series playing at Auto Zone Park following the Redbirds game on August 14th. They can be heard at bars and clubs throughout Memphis Mississippi including The Sheraton Casino in Tunica. Faultline features the amazingly talented guitarist band leader Steve Harper who was among 7 national finalists out of the 4950 guitarist who competed in the 2006 Guitar Centers Guitarmageddon: King of the Blues competition this past June 8th and was honored to have performed at the House of Blues Chicago and to meet his hero, the one and only BB King! He was also recently chosen as one of the top 20 Great Unsigned artists for the Rock 103 Great Unsigned On Line Battle of the Bands for his solo project Soul Expression.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: