An original member of Capelton's exclusive David House Family, Prince Pankhi ushers in a new era of conscious dancehall with a roots feel, status quo-challenging lyrics, stirring up flames of controversy with every bellow of his thunderous vocals. 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, WORLD: Reggae Details: The newest addition to the Mad Beat Entertainment arsenal is Prince Pankhi, an original member of Capelton's exclusive David House Family, a cultural and musical representative clique. Born in Westmoreland, Jamaica and raised in the capitol of Kingston, this natural born artist first sparked his long musical journey at St. Paul's Primary School where as a 3rd grader he came in First Place at a talent show for 4th, 5th and 6th graders. Perfecting his craft and building up his reputation as a premier reggae artist over the years. Pankhi has been featured worldwide on numerous compilation C.D.s and has released dozens of singles on reggae's favorite, 45 r.p.m. vinyl records as well as releasing two previous full length C.D.s-Golden Glory and Marvelous Journey and he just finished his 3rd full length C.D., Family of Love. Prince Pankhi also continue to blaze crowds into a frenzy headlining his own energetic performances as well as opening for many of reggae's greats including Sean Paul, Gregory Isaacs, Elephant Man, coco T and of course the Fire Man-Capelton at venues across the U.S., Jamaica, Europe and Asia. Pankhi's soon to be released Family of Love will propel him to a new level of stardom while showcasing his musical diversity, lyrical creativity and his natural talent to make good solid hits without resulting to slackness-vulgar, gimmicky and/or obscene lyrics. He has been on Capelton's Fire tour since August 2004.
