Its Gossip with the energy of urban jazz and R&B community in a unique style. 15 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: The Motor City has given birth to great gospel artists like The Winans Family, The Clark Sisters, J. Moss, and Deitrick Haddon. We had paved the way for many choirs throughout the world with great conductors such as the Rev. Charles Nick and Thomas Whitfield. who could forget Aretha Franklin singing at the Daddy's church and tearing the house down with "Mary Don't You Weep?" Motown has definitely made it mark. Detroit can't be stopped when it comes to gospel music. Thats is why Sean Harding joins the city's best and testifies that God has "Been Good". On his new release on NuHouse Records, Sean Hardin lets you know that God is more than fiction. He is joined with his group Obadiah ringing in the background echoing his sentiments. Sean Hardin was introduced to the gospel arena at an early age. He is a product of Detroit suburb, Highland Park. He has always loved singing and has made that known by way of local band, community choirs, background singer to Deitrick Haddon, A R of ManHaddon Entertainment founded by Deitrick Haddon, and now his own solo project. When hs is not preaching, fathering, working, or playing the organ, Sean is singing. He has also put his writing talent to work on his new CD. When you listen you will know that he has high energy and he wants to present God with it. All the tracks give Sean's personal testimony of overcoming and triumphing in our Lord Jesus Christ.
