Here is just a sample of what is in store for you...

SEO Expert Brad Fallon As the Google Tool Bar and Google Analytics gets more popular Google will be able to gather more information about what sites are considered relevant search results to Google searchers. When Google engineers believe this information is coming from a statistically significant sample size they will start using this info as part of the search algorithm. Brad Fallon SEO Expert Dan Thies Google will continue to find and punish SEO spammers. Manipulating positions by link campaigns will become increasingly difficult and expensive, and it will require more weeks and months than it used to. Dan Thies SEO Expert Stephen Auker ...This is predicted to have many benefits particularly for established, trusted websites who are voted for by the public using unique IP address recognition. Less established sites will have to earn their trust before a listing is granted. Stephen Auker Limited Time Offer
