Meddling landladies, fashion-tortured canines, psychotic best friends is that what it takes to bring two love-jaded people together, or will they be killed with good intentions? Allison Leavitt is great at living in a make-believe world shed created one in her best-selling mystery novels, home of her fantasy man, a hard-nosed detective with a granite-encrusted heart. Its taken years for an artist to finally capture his image, the one shes lived with in her head for far too long. Imagine her shock when she discovers him standing in her living room! When the shock fades, one question remains: now that shes found him, what is she going to do about making fantasy reality? Displaced Los Angeles detective Jay Cantrall isnt happy with his Spokane, Washington assignment, and even more disgruntled with his whacked-out apartment house. The landlady runs around in muumuus whispering sweet nothings to her bizarre canine companion, who hates Jay but has romantic tendencies toward his leg. One tenant thinks nothing of staging mock murders, another is a man-shark, and his next-door neighbor, Allison, although incredibly delectable, seems to be incapable of little more than fish imitations. Besides, he learned his lesson where women are concerned: nothing can bring a mans downfall faster than a womans lies. It seems that whenever Jay and Allison are near each other, disaster strikes. And when one of the disasters leaves Jay injured, guilt-ridden Allison decides to nurse the cranky cop back to health. But will her ministrations heal the wounds deep inside both of them, or will it end in yet another disaster?Author: Wolf, Stacia Publisher: Samhain Publishing, Ltd.
