Alternative country, bluesy folk accompanied by pterodactyl squawks and smokey crooning. Strange and beautiful. 16 MP3 Songs in this album (53:26) ! Related styles: COUNTRY: Alt-Country, FOLK: Folk-Rock

People who are interested in Tom Waits Johnny Cash Neil Young should consider this download. Details:

Andrew Scott's folky bluesy gypsy, alt-country blend is a unique and exciting sound. His songs are a strange mix of storytelling and eccentric mad ramblings. Imagine Tom Waits, Neil Young, Robert Johnson, Johnny Cash and Cormac McCarthy all mangled up in the same horrifying car crash. Zang!

Born and raised in Grande Prairie, Alberta. In 2002 Andrew moved to Lethbridge Alberta to study music and education at the University of Lethbridge. During this time he ended up being the energetic frontman for a very popular local group called The Turncoats. This group recorded two discs (Bloodrunnin, Teeth Like A Chainsaw) and played at venues and festivals all over Western Canada including The South Country Fair, The Medicine Hat Spectrum Festival, the Lethbridge Folk Club and the Kispiox Valley Music Festival. In 2001 Andrew's song 'She Don't Want My Money' won first place in the Grande Prairie 97.7 Sun FM songwriting contest. In 2006 Andrew won best performance at the Calgary Folk Festival Songwriting Contest with his song 'Artillery'. In 2007 Andrew got second place in the Calgary Folk Festival Songwriting Contest for his song 'River of Tears'. In 2007 Andrew graduated from the U of L with a B.Ed/B.Mus and headed off to Japan where he is currently working as an English/Culture teacher with the JET Programme. He has continued an active performance schedule there and has recently completed a brand new new album '13 Birds of Prey', a project recorded in both Canadian and Japanese studios.
