Details: Entertainer, Singer, Songwriter, Producer Bruce Lacy is a multi-talented artist whose vocal abilities range from Soul, Funk, R & B. Vocally his voice combines the flavor of all the classic old school singers. His dream is to keep the feel of classic old school alive so the new generations can learn to love through music. Bruce, who was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, mentioned that he realized he had vocal abilities when he was leaving a Summer Series Concert held in Central Park, New York. While leaving the concert he was singing then realized there was a large crowd following him and yelling at him to "Keep singing, just keep on singing", and he's been doing it ever since. Upon moving to California Bruce took a short time out from his live performing to write and produce his latest CD "Welcome to My Groove". In 2005, Bruce wrote music, lyrics, Co-Produced a CD project with the band known as Hip Service, out of Sacramento, California along with Jeff Tamiler Guitar player of "Tower Of Power" Entitled "Hip Service 'Uncovered'", Doc, Larry Bragg, and other members of "Tower Of Power", joined in on the project. Also in 2005, Bruce, along with Hip Service, received an award from The Black Music Association; Sounds of Soul "SOS", Music Awards' "Best R & B Band in Sacramento. In 2001 Bruce Lacy was presented with an award at the SOS, "Sounds of Soul" Best R & B Performer of the Year, held in Sacramento California; sponsored by The Black Musicians and Entertainers Association. Bruce said "It's an honor to get recognition and support from the town you now call home". In the year 2000, Bruce formed a band called, "The Boss Mink Band" featuring himself as Lead vocalist. Bruce is also thankful that he had a platform, Jazzmen's-Old Sacramento, to showcase his talent. During his career Bruce has had the opportunity to meet and or share the stage with many of the great entertainers such as: The Whispers, Earth, Wind and Fire, Tower of Power, Lenny Williams, Evelyn "Champagne" King, Midnight Star, Ali-Ollie Woodson; Formerly of The Temptations, Cynthia: Sly The Family Stone, and Con-Funk-Shun. Bruce says performing in front of and being able to speak to Paul Stanley of the Rock group KISS was definitely a highlight of his career. Also performing with HIP SERVICE at Herb Wesson's Speaker of the House Inaugural Gala, was a performance and party to remember. At present Bruce is performing live shows all over California with Hip Service. Take a look at hipservice.com. When he's not on the road you'll find Bruce at home in his studio working on a CD project; "Midday Cool" " A Moment of Shade", and Hip Service's new project due to be released next year, 2006. A balladeer at heart Bruce loves to write love songs that reach every fiber of your heart. Be sure to purchase "Welcome To My Groove". Enjoy special moments with Bruce.
