Irish and then some... 16 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, WORLD: World Traditions Details: "St. Paddy's Day at Bristol Brewing Company was a huge success due to the overwhelming outpouring of customer support for Ceol Ceili. It was truly an evening of enchantment as the Ceol Ceili provided the crowd with their own special mix of Irish and then some..." Josh Osterhoudt, General Manager, Bristol Brewing Company "Ceol Ceili has a perfect alchemy of vocals and traditional Celtic instrumentation. They faithfully honor the inherent acoustic beauty and essence of the Celtic sound, and I love the balance (and tension) of both sexes in the band." Phil Volan, guitarist, songwriter and recording artist. "Ceol Cil sparks visions of times long ago, from places far away, for a today audience. They're mood-setters and stylists at their Gaelic best!" Duke Davis, Western Musician/Songwriter/Producer "Jim and I both had a wonderful toe-tappin time last night. Ceol Cil really delivers the goods (it was my first time seeing you guys play!). You really had the crowd going with rollicking tunes, great vocals and some of those great Irish pub standards. It was the most enjoyable night out I've had in a while. I'm looking forward to hearing your new CD" Hope Grietzer, Fiddler, Black Rose Band "We were privileged to have Ceol Cil with us at the 5th annual Beartooth Rendezvous. They are consummate musicians who are passionate about their performance. My favorite has to be 'Hard times come again no more'. Don't miss the chance to hear them." Bob Woods, President Beartooth Beemers, Red Lodge, Montana.
