Professional and exhilarating, Das Vibenbass blend classic jazz sounds (tenor sax, upright bass) with contemporary groove tools (vibraphone, rock drums) to unfurl an aura of cherishably precise puissance. 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Acid Jazz, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: Mindwrestling, Das second full-length album was released Sept 2006. Listeners will find no sudden departures from the groups vigorous breed of jazz, as their latest record showcases the familiarly muscular compositions they are best known for. Also prevalent to the album is their ever-deepening experiments with recording improvisation and the accompaniment of ensemble players. This quartet continues to amaze audiences with their precise, uncompromising timbre. Geoff Larson and JC Bockman structure the groups prime sensibility with flooding bass and raucous drums, respectively. Josh Clifford lends his versatile tenor saxophone to passages that require both pestilence and boon, while Justin Sorensen assertively haunts the sound with his contemporary approach on the vibraphone. Das Vibenbass seeks to challenge the borders of jazz today; Mindwrestling is evidence that they have solidified themselves as an important voice for years to come.
