Dave Jay's whimsical collection of clever, catchy, melodic songs includes an array of kooky characters and ideas that are sure to put a smile on children's faces everywhere. 12 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: Dave Jay wrote his first song when he was 9 years old about his first crush, kind of an adult theme for a young kid to write about. Now he's an adult and this recent batch of songs is a whimsical collection of child-inspired ditties; I guess it's all come full circle. Dave Jay was a Finalist in the CT Comedy Festival and appeared on ABC-TV's The View as their Original Song Contest Winner. He was also honored as a Special Guest Performer in Shure Microphones Best Singer/Songwriter in New York competition. You may have also heard his original JBlammo Pop music (come up with your own name, you've got your own genre) on MTV, licensed for their programs The Osbournes, Clone High and Undressed. This is Dave Jay's first children's CD to be released on this planet. After sending his music to the outer reaches of the universe and back, all will agree it is long overdue. You can hear more of Dave Jay's original creations on the Intergalactic Information Network (or internet to you and me) at his own dot com (davejay.com). Until then, grab a moon juice and look up at the sky, we hear it's a full earth tonite!
