Jasiyah started singing and dancing at the age of four. He would study The Jackson Five and The Temptations for several hours a day. His mother and father played a major role in his development in learning the necessary skills to become an entertainer. He would perform publicly on many occasions. When Jasiyah was thirteen years old he formed his own group, they would perform at local high schools and talent shows, they also made an appearance on Apollo's Amateur Night. The group went by the name All The Way. Shaahtik Nelson the groups' manager, is responsible for Jasiyah and groups introduction to the Music and Recording industry. Jasiyah began writing songs at the age of fourteen; he worked diligently to perfect his songwriting ability. After a nine year run with the group Jasiyah started his solo career. His first single titled "four play" which was released in 1994 sold 5,000 copies, on his own independent label. In 1998 Jasiyah promoted a show at Richmond Hill High School for teen sensation Imajine. He also released his first solo album with in that same year which sold 3,000 copies locally. In the year of 2000 Jasiyah received an Honorable Mention Award in the John Lennon Song Writing Contest for songs he wrote titled "Gina" and "I Miss You". In the year 2002 Jasiyah was a project coordinator for platinum selling 70's group Blue Magic, who recorded the hit song "side show". As you see he is a team player, by trying to help Blue Magic make a come back. Presently Jasiyah is still working diligently to build his library of songs.
