Broadway Classics - Lively and luscious nightclub favourites from Sondheim, Legrand and Bernstein. Performed with a velvet tone. 12 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Musical Theater Show all album songs: Hope for the Future Songs Details: Founder and Artistic Director of "Opera on the Go", Jodi Rose has dedicated the 20-year-old company to bringing American Contemporary Opera to children and adults everywhere. Creating the audiences of tomorrow! Jodi Rose has portrayed roles as diverse as the prudish librarian in "Music Man"; to the illiterate Liza Doolittle in "My Fair Lady"; to the flamboyant and loud Nellie in "Showboat". In the world of opera Jodi Rose has performed everything from a 10year old "Little Red Riding Hood", performed with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra; to a femme fatale in "La Traviata", performed in Vienna Austria; as well as touring the Country as a 70 year old Mother Hubbard in "Babes in Toyland". Jodi has staged multiple one woman Cabaret Style Concerts; most recently Hope For The Future which she donated as a fund raiser for the Philadelphia Ronald McDonald House. Jodi has performed, directed and/or choreographed more than 30 professional musical theater/opera productions. Three of "Opera on the Go's" productions: "Goldilocks and the Three Bears", "Little Red Riding Hood", and "Pirate Captains", have been presented on New York City Public Television, as well as their song and dance musical revue, "Showboat Rhapsody". Because of her entrepreneurial work since 1996, she has been written up in Whos Who of American Women as well as The World Whos Who of American Women. NEW YORK NEWSDAY selected Opera on the Go as one of ENTERTAINMENT'S BEST BETS!
