Throughout her life she was surrounded by musicians and singers. As a child, the memories that she is most fond of are the times when she would sit with her sister, Michele Cash, and listen to her father, Ed Williams, sit and play guitar and sing for hours. That is where it all began, because after her father realized that Mandy and her sister had some talent, he was proud and made sure that everyone else had a chance to hear them as well. From family get togethers to small oprys that came to town, Mandy and her sister Michele would always sing. Mandy and Michele continued to sing throughout their teenage years at several venues throughout DFW area including Johnny High's Music Review, Crystal Chandelier, and anywhere else that they could do what they loved. After a few years, Mandy Hutchins took some time off to concentrate on her life. Soon she was married and starting a new family. She now has two children, Harley and Allie, which are already aspiring singers. Mandy Hutchins is now getting back to business. She just finished her first album "Pick Me" with Hat Creek Records out of Waxahachie, Texas.
