New and traditional kids songs and dance ideas: polkas, folk tales, and how to save the world. 15 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Sing-Along/Interactive, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Mr. Saxophone is a children's musical entertainer from St. Louis. Since 1997 he has been performing at local preschools, libraries, and various children's events. "Sing and Dance with Mr. Saxophone" (2002) represents a cross-section of music from his live show recorded in a studio. There are many traditional dances like the "Duck Dance", dance medleys like "Folkie Dance-along", as well as new dance ideas like "Whoa Horsie Whoa" and "A'Rovin' Winds" The record also features a few original songs with catchy melodies that children will find easy to pick up on. The final two tracks are sound-scapes intended for background sound or to use as a lullaby to help a restless child to sleep. "Sing and Dance with Mr. Saxophone" received a Children's Music Web Award in 2003. People who are interested in Raffi The Wiggles Schoolhouse Rock should consider this download.
