The new release from NYC's downtown act. This girl-fronted Japanese trio PIQUO combines dreamy melodies and reflective lyrics with pretty side of sadness, naturally swinging into your cells. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Delicate, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Piquo is a NYC based girl-fronted Japanese trio. Naomi Watanabe draws pastel-colored sounds by singing and playing her standing drum kit in front. While she enjoys putting her sound together, Seiichiro Koizumi adds his spacy-spicy bass line to boil brain cells and boost its adrenaline. When both are ready to go, Tomokazu Yano makes the whole sound send to ears in an easy way by vox-guitar fills. Confusing the way it sounds? It'll be sure when it's seen and heard on stage! Hopefully on your listening device... "A unique sound from this NYC-based Japanese combo. Seeing them live is a delight, with the sight of Naomi fronting, on vocals at her stand-up drum kit."
