CLASSICAL: New Age, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: A Flute Tootin' Yule warmly celebrates the Christmas spirit, drawing on the natural beauty of instruments from the flute family. From poignant to playful, this exceptional collection of vibrant new arrangements from some of Hollywood's most talented composers and orchestrators uniquely captures the excitement and grace of the holiday season.

Resonance Flute Consort, comprised of six professional flutists from the Los Angeles area, is a distinct ensemble, featuring the entire range of flutes from piccolo to bass and including the very rare and sonorous contrabass flute. This combination of first-rate musicians and innovative pieces, crafted specifically for this group, allows Resonance to offer a dynamic listening experience, challenging the traditional role of the flute as a purely symphonic or solo instrument. Nelidova Records proudly presents this captivating fresh perspective on some of your Christmas favorites. A Flute Tootin' Yule is a wonderful musical surprise. From the piccolo to the contra-bass flute, this ensemble of consummate artists performs an array of holiday favorites in grand style. Their seventeen inspirational renditions of holiday favorites will certainly bring smiles all around year after year. This CD is full of joy, and highly recommended. Alf Clausen, composer - The Simpsons A Flute Tootin' Yule is an excellent example of musical perfection, interpretation, and spiritualism. The idea of creating a flute choir is extraordinary and replicates the traditional voice choruses that are usually related to Christmas celebrations. The choice of repertoire is impeccable, and I would invite anyone who would like to enjoy the holiday celebration to listen to A Flute Tootin' Yule. Lalo Schifrin, composer -- Mission Impossible, Rush Hour This CD is one of those that needs to be in everyone's Christmas collection. It is full of great and clever arrangements performed by truly fine flutists! Jim Walker, flutist on over 400 motion picture soundtracks, Former principal flutist of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, leader of jazz-classical fusion quartet Free Flight A Flute Tootin' Yule captures the fun and meaning of Christmas with terrific performances that bring a unique sound to the wonderful music of the season. You can't listen to this recording without smiling and remembering why you love the holidays. Richard Kaufman, Principal Pops Conductor: Dallas Symphony Orchestra, Pacific Symphony, The Florida Orchestra What a welcome addition to holiday music collections!
