Great album with a dark but uplifting look on life. 14 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, ROCK: Folk Rock
Details: The Celtic Ninja Construction is more of a musical concept, though as a band it very much is alive and kicking. The Concept was is based around a musical and lyrical directness while embracing combining many musical genres in a truly Celtic manner. The Song writing team of Vince Hughes and Finbar Coady are widely travelled and therefore also highly influenced by what they have seen, heard and felt on their journeys. All of which experience finds its way into their eclectic and highly enjoyable new album Happy Days. Recorded in Ireland and Argentina, Happy Days goes from reggae to rock to funk to bi lingual ballad and back again in the course of its 14 track odyssey and also contains one of the videos shot by Argentinean Director Mache Gonzalez on location in and around Buenos Aires. With plans to release a double A side dvd single in the near future of Happy Days and a fully animated video for Driving The Babylon Tree, this is a band with a future and an album that You Must have in your collection NOW
