Heres What You Need To Learn To Improve Your Finances, Even If Its Just Part-Time! And I can hand you a few hard-won tips that youll only get from someone whos actually created and sold a lot of their own products online. Ive put together a little manual, about 75 pages, that will show you exactly what you need to do to get started in your own online business - fast. It includes: Tips on the mindset and processes you need to understand before you even get started. These are as important to your success as your choice of products. The 4-Step process you need to follow to get a product done and actually making you money. The 7 tactics you need to use in every action you take in your business. Keeping these in mind from the start will give you a powerful edge on many more experienced marketers. A process that will dramatically improve your offer and give you a much sharper focus on whats important in developing and selling your product. Not one person in 100 uses this approach, and its as simple as it is surprising. Ways to develop killer product ideas, and to get them turned into high-quality products quickly. A resource list that gives you links to all the free software I mentioned earlier and then some, along with some excellent paid resources that will help you as you get more experienced. The simple reason why complete strangers will often believe in you more than your family and your closest friends. Proven processes for getting a book done quickly, even if you hate to write. Rules for creating a successful software product. And what kind to avoid developing at all costs. What you must include in every sales site - and what will kill your sales without you ever knowing. A quick and simple system for writing sales letters that actually sell. Why - and when - being a great writer can actually work against you. How to get other people to sell tons of your product for you - and thank you for the opportunity. The three most effective ways to get people to visit your sales page after youve completed it. And much more. The book is called Simple Online Business, and its just that. Everything you need to start your own business on the Internet, and to get it into profit fast.
