Everything you love about pop, brought up a notch. Arching melodies, clever and meaningful lyrics, with 21st-century rhythm and production that does not forget its roots. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: This is the long-awaited follow-up to Bob's first album, Bob Is Famous. Bob is a musical artiste ("ar-teest") from the San Francisco Bay Area. He conceives the songs, plays them, writes the lyrics, sings, and produces the recordings himself, mostly from a little corner in his home. Sounds like a humble operation, but take a listen and see if this does not sound like real professionals were involved. This album has one song that was not written by Bob, but rather by his friends Paul McCartney and John Lennon. It is called "I Want to Hold Your Hand." I think John and Paul did a pretty good job on this one. Who knows, it could even be a hit of sorts. We think it measures up quite well to the other material on Bob's album. "I've got a big grin on my face.... Lots of wit and melody inside the funk." --Tim Sanders, Kick Horns
