Details: Bob Prince has performed throughout much of the United States as well as parts of the Caribbean and Europe. His fingerstyle guitar technique and interpretation have evolved through contact with many fine musicians of all styles as well as years of formal study in classical and jazz guitar. He derives great inspiration from his surroundings. In addition to live performances, Bob has done studio work and soundtrack scores. He co-wrote and recorded, with modern dance choreographer Tere O'Connor, the score for "You Baby Goes to Tendertown", which was performed in New York City, Europe, and Australia. Bob now resides in New York City, where he records, performs, and teaches.
