

Mp3 Caroline Mckenzie - Christmas With Caroline

Influenced by artists so diverse as Leontyne Price, Mary J. Blige, Bette Midler and Ella Fitzgerald, I've fallen into a style that I call smooth jazz sacred. This decidedly seasonal music is carried by an all-occasion, easy listening sensibility. Enjoy. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Welcome! Im just hanging out here waiting for the Metropolitan Opera to call, but the site is so user-friendly, I might stay for a while. You see, I was born in New York City and destined to be a presence on somebodys stage, so I chose the Met. Once someone tells them, we should be good to go. In the meantime, Ive had the great, good fortune to sing Ellington with Jay Hogarth at the Tarrytown Music Hall, Gershwin in Germany and Mozart in Santa Clarita, CA. Perhaps the most meaningful moment of my career, the nexus of all my charges from this miraculous universe of ours, has been singing the spiritual City Called Heaven in 1990 at Temple Bnai Jeshrun, New York City, to welcome President Nelson Mandela and celebrate his release from prison. (I was twenty, sort of.) Bernice Johnson Reagon (Sweet Honey and the Rock) and Harry Belafonte were there. After my solo, Harry Belafonte jumped up and gave me this great, big old kiss. Is it any wonder that Marys Boy Child, which Belafonte made famous, is my favorite cut on this album! I now live in Los Angeles (more on this when Ive figured it out). I relocated here to marry Ken Robinson who, with two of the Monday-night jazz guys from Canters Kibbitz Room, plays percussion on this CD. In addition to regular solo work around town, I sing with the Camerata of the Episcopal Cathedral Center in Echo Park, the Albert McNeil Jubilee Singers and the sublime Vox Femina, L.A. I hope that my music would always spring from the Christmas spirit, bringing healing, redemption and delight to audiences, family and friends alike. Thank you for visiting my CD Baby page.
