You are invited inside these piano expressions to join an experience of musical storytelling and active listening that promotes a process of strengthening, open searching, and being with the deep and quiet places of oneself. 12 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Healing, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: The music you hear on this album can best be described as piano improvisations or meditations. The different pieces are like callings and responses to a broad band of influences and moods. So no fixed musical style is being attempted, only the motivation and the wish to steer both the player and the listener into the depth of themselves and from that place, being able to better catch new thoughts and feelings and a sense of being released from the tensions and stresses that tend to close our systems down. These compositions were recorded live during improvisational performances in the way of 'music meditations' or 'thinking concerts'. Enjoy!
