He was born in New Orleans, Louisiana and raised on the Westbank of New Orleans. His first music interest came about when four of his brothers started a music group called Wheel Chair Posse (W.C.P.), when he was featured on their tape in 1993. He was so excited and overwhelmed from this opportunity that this became his dream and goal in life. Once he began rapping he gained an interest in making beats from his brother Bryant Miller a.k.a. House of W.C.P. Due to the fact of his life living in New Orleans with crime, violence and poverty he was unable to focus on his dream for several years. In 2003, Glen Miller a.k.a. ND (former member of W.C.P.) started a record company/studio (NDA Records) and signed Hire Spensa as a rapper/producer for the label where a group was formed known as Faze 3 consisting of Hire Spensa, ND and Half Dead (former member of W.C.P.). Faze 3 has appeared in magazine, local rap/hiphop tv show Phat Phat n All Dat as well as performed in a few local clubs (Key West, Rocafella, Illusions). She Makin Money a single from their album Made Fa Dis was in rotation on Q93. Unfortunately Hurricane Katrina hit and destroyed everything. Now were relocated in Fort Worth, Texas and NDA Records and Hire Spensa decided to give it one more chance. We jumped back in the studio and made the album My Style which Hire Spensa blessed with hot lyrics and fire beats. He is ready and eager to get in the industry and show everybody his style because it takes more than Hurricane Katrina to stop him. Without no struggle theres no progress and anything worth having is worth working for.
