son of dr. dre tha hood surgeon the legacy continues. 23 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: HOOD SURGEON Biography: Curtis Young, AKA Hood Surgeon was born on December 15, 1981 in Paramount, California at charter suburban Hospital. Early in his life, he moved to Compton, California and attended Kelly Elementary school. Through his High school years studied poetry to better himself in his rap endeavors. His inspiration comes from east and west coast rappers such as Tupac Shakur, The Notorious BIG, Jay-Z and, his father Andre Young, (Dr. Dre). Looking up to a great legend inspired Hood Surgeon to consider music as a possible career choice, thus learning how to mix, rap and make his own beats. Now being in the spot light Hood realizes the responsibility that comes with the territory. He also realizes the expectations of him to keep the legacy alive created by his father, and has continually worked towards his career dreams independently. In keeping with the hood image running through the streets of Compton, Hood managed to get in some trouble which in many ways assisted him in honing the artist within. By overcoming inner city obstacles and the trials and tribulations of the industry, an artist is reborn. He began his own label So Hood Records. This is not a career to Hood, its his birth right and mission to put the west coast, by way of an east coast route, back on the map. Hood Surgeon is attempting to create a buzz without any assistance from radio nor label support. However, the time has come for Hood to take the throne. After careful consideration, Hood Surgeon is ready to begin the take over. Do the math and get on board with Hood. What ever the case , you can expect nothing but positive creative things from the HOOD SURGEON.
