WORLD: Reggae Details: "Jah Eye pulls out all the stops on I Sight (Unity Works) utilizing such disparate elements as rap, dub poetry and falsetto and a stellar lineup of L.A.'s finest musicians including Lesterfari, Mark Tyson and original Soul Syndicate drummer Santa Davis for a roots tour de force. The songs stick to cultural themes with standout tracks including "Black Liberation," "No More War," "Children of the Ghetto" and "In This Time." Through it all the sound is relaxed and rootsy, exemplifying the message music that helped establish reggae as a living force." - Chuck Foster (The Beat) As mankind enters the new millineum, Jah Eye is bringing the message of Rastafari to the world community musically via his debut CD "I SIGHT", the first project recorded on the Unity Works label. Recorded in Los Angeles, CA at Unity Works Studios, "I Sight" is a return to the time when music was more than just entertainment. In Jah Eye's own words, " 'I Sight' represents all that I see in the world, the universal oppression of the masses, wars and rumours of wars as well as the vision of a brighter tomorrow through the realization of Love as a global force and strict obedience to the laws of the Most High Jah Rastafari." Backed by top Reggae musicians like drummer Carlton "Santa" Davis (Soul Syndicate, Word Sound and Power), guitarist Lesterfari (Boom Shaka) and bassist Ronnie "Stepper" McQueen (Steel Pulse), Jah Eye delivers a powerful message of Love, Unity and Spiritual deliverance in the midst of world wide confusion.
