Details: Kristen Graves is an acoustic singer songwriter with a voice that commands attention, lyrics that catch your heart, and melodies that stay with the listener long after the evening ends. Kristen has been writing and performing her own compositions since 2000. As an acoustic singer songwriter she has toured both regionally and nationally since 2002. She has created three albums, and has independently sold over 2,000 copies of her CDs. Originally from the Midwest, Kristen began Classical piano lessons at age 6, studying and developing her talent until she began to write her own music at 18. Picking up the guitar during college, Kristen recorded two full-length albums of her own compositions, and launched a solo career by the time she graduated in 2004. Soon after graduation Kristen hit the road, and after a few years of east coast living, she released her third album, Stay, in July 2008. The album was followed by a 15 city promotional tour. Stay includes 11 of Kristens most heart-felt compositions, which are presented through the production of Chris Cubeta, GaluminumFoil Productions in Brooklyn, NY. Though Kristens personality comes through in her songwriting and recordings, you need to hear her live to truly get to know her. Through captivating storytelling and relevant poetry, Kristens passion is contagious - making every listener want to hear more...
