

Mp3 Rodrigues - Sound Of The City

DOWNLOAD HERE

A wide variety of emotions take flight in the words, music, and voice of Rodrigues. 14 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mature, ROCK: Roots Rock Details: Sound of the City Jim Rodrigues and Randy Tobin turn a legendary radio jingle into a beautiful Golden Gate single. J. Rod claims a San Francisco birthright. His dad helped build The City's historic bridges. Just One Thing "Ya gotta dance" to this love-rap contract. The standard for love should be: "I love just one thing better than your body and that just one thing is you." Magic Hat George "Garfield" Edward is more like a tailgunner than a drummer in a song that creates the genre, "Wild Rock." "...We blamed him for the mess we made and we nailed him to a rod." Suicide Is Painless (Theme from M*A*S*H) Q.) Why does a hummingbird hum? A.) Because he doesn't know the words! One of the most listened to tunes ever, reunites with its amusingly poignant, anti-war, Mandel-Altman lyrics. Tobin builds the tracks and J. Rod sings the song. Icy Star Can a star be icy? Find out in this one-of-a-kind performance featuring Robert Hernandez on flute. Aijia Randall Michael Tobin knocks out an incredible keyboard solo in this lovely yet somehow haunting lullaby for girls from ages 1 to 91. Vampire Deluxe "Is that rib sauce on your gorgeous fangs or is it my dripping blood?" Rodrigues Rap? Amazingly, you can understand the words and they actually mean something profound (or at least fun). Props to James Brown for the soulful assist. Sand in My Shoes A Staten Island inspired adventure. "I watch, you look, brown eyes meet blue. Me being me and you being you." Gridiron Lament The funniest football song ever as aired on The Doctor Demento Show: "My green-eyed honey knew I hadn't played, she had the nerve to tell me, 'Only starters get laid.'" Destined for Monday Night Football jukeboxes everywhere. Sunday Morning Dream Song J. Rod asked Tobin: "Can flute and harmonica be blended?" Parnum and her flute doubted it. Then Tobin pulled out his magic harp and... Just a Child Just Big Rod and his antique Yamaha. Touching You A Lake Tahoe song. The Tobin piano and lovely Parnum flute make you smell the smokey pine-filled air and feel the evening mountain chill. Freeway City Hard Rock So Cal from a No Cal point of view. Tailgunner Edward opens fire again. "Freeway City L.A. - Air is thick enough to eat." The Nature of Things Something ultra mellow for those who can imagine the possibility of past lives and past loves. Rodrigues

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: