The mesmerizing melodies from this CD were composed by one of Hollywood's new crop of talented composers creating a buzz. Philippine-born, classically-trained, nightclub veteran, pianist, Gale Stoddard is a composer-pianist-songwriter collaborating with Ray Evans, the last of the legendary songwriters and winner of three Oscars for his songs; Mona Lisa, Buttons and Bows and Que Sera Sera. He dubs Gale's music as reminiscent of the late musical giants Victor Young and Henry Mancini. The lyricists are; writer/lyricist Sam Slavik bringing to the mix his life's experiences, with singer-songwriter Roland Valentino, one of Hollywood's finest and smoothest balladeer bringing to life the lyrics with his Jack Jones, Nat King Cole and Johnny Mathis influenced smooth voice, like soft ice cream melting in your mouth.
