All Tootie Greene wants is a loving, normal family. But this tough-talking, spirited prostitute realizes that with her shameful past, this is just a wild dream. This beautiful, red-headed girl was sent to a foster home as a teenager, but she later ran away only to be abducted and forced into sexual slavery. Tootie is sold to a pimp-learning firsthand the atrocities of human trafficking. When Tootie, working as a prostitute and exotic dancer, falls in love with and marries Johnny Mack, a sympathetic preacher, she believes her torrid past is behind her as they start the family she has always dreamed about. But her happiness is short-lived. A church deacon, a former client from her days of prostitution, blackmails her to have sex with him; when Tootie bears his child, Johnny forces her to leave. Tootie can't escape the seamy side of life and is forced into a Tantric ring of sexual slavery-an experience far worse than the others in her life. She dreams of escaping from the murderous cult leader and being reunited with her husband, Johnny, and her children. Will she realize her dream of becoming a part of a loving family?
