WARNING! ONLY FOR SERIOUS ONLINE ENTREPRENEURS "Discover A Hidden Strategy That Will Create A FLOOD OF AUTHORITY BACKLINKS & Catapult Your Sites to The Top of The Search Engines.....INSTANTLY!" Yes... The cat is out of the bag now! And you just like thousands before you have been sold a lie. 180 degrees opposite to what you have been told before, getting those elusive hordes of traffic and hundreds of page views to boost your rankings is much, much easier than you think. In fact the 'guru's and experts discovered a powerful and effective way to drive targeted traffic and boost up their site rankings a while back but they kept mum about it. Why? Well if someone gave you secret access to go to the national mint at night and grab as much crisp, fresh dollar bills as you could, would you tell the world about it? Of course not! It's the same with these top notch marketers. They have already made a ton out of these secrets but they want more. So they tell you the usual rehashed nonsense: 1) Go to forums and social network sites, register there, leave comments and a link to your site 2) Find similar blogs in your niche, do a blog comment or backlink, viola! One measly backlink 3) Write & submit so many articles in ezinearticlesthat you might as well apply for a job in the local papers. Wait, wait wait. Have you guys ever done it this way before? Probably just about everyone (including us) spent hours

upon hours laboriously searching for niche blogs, forums and taking time to go to various social media sites such as twitter, facebook, myspace , digg and the like. And let me tell you this: It will drain YOU out in no time! Simply because of two things: 1) It's time consuming and tiring Okay, this may sound like a no brainer to you. But time is money. And time, once spent, can never be recovered. You want to spend your time focusing on things that really matter, including building up your multiple streams of income and even personal matters such as spending time with your family, not become an article journalist. 2) Forum webmasters, blog owners and nasty visitors. These guys are a handful. There will always be people in this world you can't please who will be cynical and find fault with every tiny detail. There is no point trying to convince them of anything. In fact, you could get more drained dealing with them. But well, since the 'guru's said its the right way, we'll have to accept the status quo, spend loads of time generating traffic through the old school way of backlinks and common traffic generation methods. Right? No, No, NO. YOU set the destiny of your life, & your websites! And today you are going to BEAT them at their own Game! You see, I also tried to do things the traditional way, you know, article marketing and such. And of course I was battered and bruised as well as left very drained by attempting back linking and other forms of traffic generation and Search Engine Optimization (SEO). That is, until a top notch marketer close to me revealed that his compatriots were actually using a method that went against the grain of what we were taught. And most of them didn't even need to appear in forums, blogs or social network sites to channel those massive backlinks to their sites. As he explained the process of how the top notch experts generated their backlinks to boost their site rankings, I got angry... Angry at myself for being made to look like a fool and angry that all the experts only taught us 30 of what they knew all the while (so...relax, you're not the only one). But I was still skeptical. So I took his methods and put them to the test on a test software I created. The whole process was set up quickly and left by itself for 3 days. 3 days later, I took a look at the results and I fell off my chair. I got top ranking for the keyword I was targeting and it had over 1 million competitors! That's ridiculous! That's...unreal! You see, this technique took us less than an hour to implement and execute! I was stunned to silence. Immediately, I contacted my expert friend and asked him to teach us the process from the start to finish, writing down every single detail meticulously. That happened months ago. Since then, I've been constantly generating loads of targeted, hungry traffic and tons of links so much so that our service provider sent us emails to check on the legitimacy of our business! So without further a due, I proudly introduce: AUTHORITY BACKLINKS AVALANCHE A
