

Crying Blood: The Cuban Project - R. Waddell, Donald

Suspense, intrigue, espionage and international travel offers a fast moving excursion into modern day Cuba. For sixteen years the CIA, DIA, and FBI tried unsuccessfully to penetrate Fidel Castro's post-revolution iron-clad security system. They were searching for a means of influencing a change in the inhumane treatment of dissident political prisoners. A geologist from Oklahoma searching for three Cubans who killed his father, inadvertently leads the way to three high level Cubans instrumental in instigating harsh and torturous treatment of political prisoners. The geologist unknowingly brings about the change at the expense of facing a life in a Cuban prison if caught. Author: Waddell, Donald, R.
