A sensuous collection of Ukrainian ritualistic songs performed by Alexis Kochan with principal players of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra 17 MP3 Songs WORLD: Eastern European, WORLD: World Traditions Details: CZARIVNA -- Alexis Kochan's first recording: a sensuous collection of Ukrainian ritualistic songs arranged and conducted by Arthur Polson and featuring the principal players of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. REVIEWS: "Like many European countries that are agricultural, Ukraine marks the seasons and social occasions with festivals of songs and dances. Here the songs are performed by Kochan with great sincerity and beauty. Polson's arrangements are admirable and reflect the mood of the songs. The interludes are full of charm and the record contains much that is memorable. Many of these songs are in the minor mode, so the prevailing mood is serious. But to an agricultural society, life is serious. This is a desirable disc." Ronald Gibson, Winnipeg Free Press
