incredibly diverse musical styles for fans of left-leaning political music - jump, swing, blues, punk, corrido, gospel, bluegrass, dixieland - at least 15 ways to dump the bosses off your back. 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Political, FOLK: Political Folk Details: Here it is! Anne's newest and best recording ever! This latest release features 15 songs six original tunes from Anne, inspired versions of three classic tunes of the Industrial Workers of the World (the Wobblies), and six songs from stellar contemporary colleagues Kiya Heartwood, James Keelaghan, Al Grierson, John William Davis, Colum Sands and Evan Greer. The finest musicians in Pittsburgh collaborated with Anne on this musically diverse collection of songs. The CD also features Commander Cody in a duet on Joe Hills Preacher and the Slave, the Austin Lounge Lizards harmonizing on Annes gospel tune You Will Answer, harmony vocals by Pat Humphries and Sandy O (Emmas Revolution) on Hillcrest Mine, and breathtaking supporting vocals arranged by Anne Weiss for the inspirational How Long? In addition to the liner notes, complete lyrics, additional links and more are included as a PDF file on the disc. Anne Feeney is the best labor singer in North America, according to Utah Phillips. Based in her hometown Pittsburgh, PA, Anne is on the road more than 200 days a year, singing in union halls, on picket lines, at rallies, riots, folk clubs, festivals, conferences, conventions and colleges. She is a Kerrville New Folk winner, and her songwriting has garnered praise from folk legends like Pete Seeger, Tom Paxton, and Peter, Paul and Mary. Annes anthem, Have You Been to Jail for Justice? is featured in several films, and is featured on two recordings by Peter, Paul and Mary. (and it's being sung in paddywagons everywhere!) "This is one of Anne Feeney's best albums ever. It's loaded with uninhibited energy and heartfelt singing---all applied to a wonderful collection of songs. just can't wait to play these new tunes on my radio show." Gene Shay/WXPN Radio/Philadelphia "Anne's newest creation is a cd that features songs by many outstanding writers. "Dump The Bosses Off Your

Back" is beautifully crafted and produced. This collection must be added to your acoustic folk library."
