This flamboyant classical pianist brings to life the 19th century Romantic music of Robert Schumann. 30 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Piano solo, CLASSICAL: Keyboard Music Details: The music of Robert Schumann, the writings of E.T.A. Hoffmann, and the commedia dell'arte burst forth in this latest release by Vancouver pianist Cary Chow! Cary Chow captivates and electrifies audiences wherever he performs. Whether he is in Montreal or New York or Beijing, he receives both critical and popular acclaim. His intense yet engaging stage presence once earned him the moniker a composite of Vladimir Horowitz and Ozzy Osbourne. The breadth of his repertoire extends from J.S. Bach to Liszt to George Crumb and beyond, and he seamlessly traverses these epochs and genres. He performs with conductors as diverse as Mario Bernardi and Gerard Schwarz in concerti from Mozart through Rachmaninoff; collaborates in recital with instrumentalists of the caliber of cellist Shauna Rolston, violinist Moshe Hammer and clarinetist Jonathan Cohler; and performs many recent works by composers such as Sir Peter Maxwell Davies, Gilles Tremblay and Derek Bermel. Cary Chows first compact disc recording on the Tintagel label was released in 1999, and featured Rachmaninoffs First Piano Sonata and the Variations on a Theme of Corelli. Commercial recordings and multi-media/inter-disciplinary projects in the near future include Liszt Sonata in B Minor and Aprs une lecture du Dante, and Prokofiev Sonatas No. 6, 7 8. His second commercial CD Zirkus (Step Inside) will be released independently in September 2007 and available from cdbaby.com. Until 2006, Cary Chow taught at the University of Victoria and the Victoria Conservatory of Music; he now coaches the Young Artist Experience at the University of British Columbia where he is known as 'The Enforcer'. In 2002, at the request of "Distinguished Professor of Violin" (France) Burkard Godhoff, he was Guest Professor for chamber music at the International Summer String Academy at Shanghai Conservatory of Music. Between 2004 06, he was Collaborative Artist in Residence at the Morningside Music Bridge program in Calgary, Canada. Since 2005, he appears annually as a Guest Professor at Central Conservatory of Music Attached Middle School in Beijing, China. In 2006, he also made his first appearance at Xing Hai Conservatory in Guangzhou, China. Cary Chow studied with Winifred Scott Wood, Dr. Robin Wood and Rena Sharon at the Victoria Conservatory of Music. By age fifteen, he had achieved the AVCM and LVCM (Victoria) and ARCT (Toronto) diplomas in piano performance; at age sixteen, he made his New York recital debut at the Metropolitan Museum of Art; at age eighteen, he was awarded the DipRAM, the highest prize from the Royal Academy of Music in London, England, where he studied with renowned professor Christopher Elton. In addition to holding a Bachelor of Music and Master of Music (with Distinction) in piano performance from the University of Victoria (with full University of Victoria Fellowship), he has completed the coursework for the Master of Business Administration degree at Royal Roads University, formerly Royal Roads Military College.
