Acoustic driven pop rock that sounds like if James Hetfield and Brett Scallions of Fuel put out acoustic pop records. 10 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Dave Volk is the drummer of Archer Avenue and has produced records, occasionally releases solo albums, and appeared on a reality show called "The Scene." The songs on "Self Made Sorrow" were originally released on Bordertown Records on three separate records: "The Rock Relissue Vol. I," "Elevator Music," and the EP version of "Self Made Sorrow." Bordertown Records returns in 2005 to bring you a full length, "digital-only" re-release of "Self Made Sorrow" with three bonus b-sides. Dave Volk starting off in the music business as the Pres. and CEO of Bordertown Records, producing BTR releases by Face Down, Marc Saucedo, Chris Reyes, and Javier Herrera. He made headlines later as a cast member on the reality show "The Scene," but recently has teamed up with solo artists Jack Bonner and Marc Saucedo to create the band Archer Avenue. Archer Avenue recently was discovered by Grammy Award Winning Producer Pete Anderson. Anderson took Archer Avenue to his studio in Burbank, CA and enlisted the production team of Tony Rambo and Sally Browder to record the band's full length. Archer Avenue's full length is set for release in Jan. 2006. Visit davevolkmusic and archeravenuemusic for more information about Dave Volk and Archer Avenue.
