Established the fall of 2004, this choir is made up of music ministers, praise worship leaders and choir members from various Southern California counties. Since winning the 2005 McDonalds Gospelfest, the premier gospel competition of Southern California, GLACC has been asked to minister in both gospel secular arenas. In 2006 they performed both the Canadian US National Anthems for the LA Kings Hockey game, and were the featured background choir vocals for Mariah Carey on her "Emancipation of Mimi" California Tour DVD Taping. Their performance resume includes a variety of stand out events, opening for various gospel industry headliners such as Micah Stampley and Deitrick Haddon and sharing platforms with other notables in gospel. ABOUT THE PROJECT Because I Have Faith is GLACC's debut effort. It offers a fresh approach to the "Choir" sound with songs infused by a variety of genres ranging from Contemporary Jazz to Traditional with a dash of Praise Worship. The CD includes hits "He Did It", "It's Already Alright", "Know He is God" and the title track "Because I Have Faith.
