A smooth blend of mellow jazz, Latin rhythm, and sultry rhythm and blues with a twist of poetry. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: The music has been non-stop since the day Jeff Sutton picked up his trumpet. This native New Orleanian by way of Baton Rouge is starting to make major waves in the entertainment industry. The reason for all the commotion, Jeff has managed to perfectly blend together traditional jazz and modern grooves, creating a sonic harmony between the two, making critics, jazz lovers, and average music listeners all agree. Jeff is good...real good. From the first time you here Jeff Sutton you automatically find yourself captured by his warm musical riffs and hypnotic grooves. Inspired early on to pick up a trumpet by the late jazz great Miles Davis, Jeff constantly challenges himself to produce music that will make his greatest musical inspiration proud. On stage Jeff has blown audiences away with New Orleans bands Vivas, Chevere, and The Big Bang Machine. It's that same energy transmitted on stage that has allowed Jeff's solo recordings to raise the bar in contemporary jazz. Jeff Sutton is the first and only jazz artist to be signed the B.S.E. Music Group. Not bad considering that Jeff walked in as a session musician and walked out being added to the label's roster. Simply put by the label's executives, "Jeff knocked our socks off, and he will do the same to you". Equally electrifying on stage and on recordings you can't help but notice that for every note he blows, Jeff gives it his all. He's all about his music and won't have it any other way. For his fist solo CD, Sunday Drive Jeff delivers 11 super-hot songs perfect for every mood. This music is sexy, warm, and filled with emotion. Featured artist include Korinn, Taffy, Kharima, and local poet Hollywood. Sunday Drive gives you what you've been longing for, good music. Jazz music will never be the same.
