Powerfully melodic pop at it's best. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, POP: Beatles-pop Details: Kyrre Saether is a young artist with a unique sense of melody that instantly catches your ear and often times will have you singing along before the end of a particular song. Still there is a slight depth and mesmerizing melancholy to some of his songs that has earned him great respect among fellow musicians/songwriters as well as his fans. Kyrre started writing songs at an early age and has developed his skill masterfully. His background is as versatile as having played trumpet in a professional Jazzband to writing songs for the Eurovision Song Contest as well as going far in the renowned Unisong Contest 2004. Kyrre, originally from Norway, has also got his degree in Music, specializing in Songwriting and vocal technique from Paul McCartneys famous Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts. Kyrre is currently scoring a thriller mini-series for Norwegian TV as well as writing and recording for his next studio album.
