Heartfelt music with insightful lyrics that translate across many styles and genres speak of the personal experiences of Larry's many years as a singer / songwriter and traveling troubador 17 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mature, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: When Larry Read was just 6 years old, he got his start on stage. Singing and performing in USO Shows with a push from his professional actor parents. That was only the beginning for Larry Read, a self-taught musician. Grateful for his parents help and encouragement, he now has been in the entertainment industry for over forty years. To say that Larry "sings" is an understatement! You'll love his rich voice with a four octave range. Larry really sings! What instruments does he play? Larry plays the guitar, bass, drums, Native American Flute and keyboards and he makes it look real easy. His style varies from 'mild to wild' as he is no stranger to Country, Rock, Folk, Americana, Jazz, Motown, New Age, Pop, Easy Listening and more. Audiences in Las Vegas, Disneyland, Knotts Berry Farm and many other venues have applauded Larry's music. You will too! He is an accomplished recording engineer who produced and recorded all songs on Legacy the CD Album. Do you like the music of the Eagles, Dan Fogelberg, James Taylor, Gordon Lightfoot, Harry Chapin, Jim Croce, Cat Stevens, Alan Jackson, George Strait, Tim McGraw, or Barry Manilow? Those are some of the artists who have influenced Larry's style over the years. This inspired him to write his own music. With a passion for music and life, Larry writes about life and life's experiences taking responsibility for its content. He strongly believes music is an extremely powerful tool. It can evoke every emotion known to man and can be used to help or harm mankind. In a quest to enlighten people and evoke a positive response, you are invited to listen to his songs. You will be able to tell that he truly enjoys using the music and lyrics to make a difference. What is valuable in this world according to Larry? "Friends, family and those you love. All you really own is this moment in time. Make the most of it. Enjoy my Music and I sincerely hope the messages speak to you in a positive way."
