PBP mixes grunge vocals with energetic punk riffs. Melody and hardcore collide as duel songwriters play with eachothers songs. Great for fans of Nirvana, Green Day, and The Lawrence Arms. 14 MP3 Songs
ROCK: Punk, ROCK: Grunge Details: Tim: Vocals, Bass, Drums Jake: Vocals, Guitar Aaron: Guitar Plan B Pursuit started (like all other great things) in a Taco Bell in Boerne, Texas. Jake and Tim met and shared a common love of punk and pissing customers off. Both coming off of previous projects (Jake: Forever Glass, Tim: Scamper) the two decided to start something new. With Jake's amazing guitar abilities and poetic sense, and Tim's.....ability to encourage Jake, the two began to write songs ranging from punk to softer punk, and from drugs sex to heartbreak sex. The two performed their first show at Jake's wedding (playing High Tide for his new wife, Tim didn't even have a date). After going through a slew of drummers and countless hours on the "drummer's ouija board" the two found Aaron to take the position in the "beating it" seat.....Then he switched to guitar. Now Tim records the drums in the studio, while various replacements come in for shows. Aaron (who is from Flint, Michigan....no, he doesn't know Michael Moore) works at an Exxon.....which is part of Taco Bell. Thank God for TB!!
