She recently returned yet with another outstanding collection of songs, written over the past two years. Her songs resonate with the ordinary made extraordinary. Her gift is to take experience from daily lives and artificial happenings and elevate them to magical status and combine them with beautiful melodies and the lush, caramel voice to build something special." -A. Hewardt Anderson, Vestkusten, Swedish Weekly Newspaper in US ' * "When I'm not on the road I enjoy playing with many talented songwriters around New York City such as Asa Rydman". - Conrad Korch, bass player (Rod Stewart) * "sa's Garden is one of the best bands I've ever showcased. sa Rydman's songs are heartfelt and without pretense that one cannot help but be drawn into her world. Her voice soars with an angelic power that commands your attention. This is compelling music!" -Bob Leone, Projects Director, Songwriters Hall of Fame, NYC * "sa's beautiful soaring voice coupled with her songs' magical intensity captures your heart soul. Her special infusion of melodies and story telling has optimal appeal. sa is going to be, in my opinion, a household name on her route to stardom." -Marcy Drexler, MD Management/Smoking Caterpillar Music, NYC sa - pronounced "awsa" - is taken from Norse Mythology meaning "goddess" in Swedish. sa Rydman has a broad musical background and has received a MFA in Music at Gteborg's University in Sweden. sa and her band sa's Garden have been performing at many of NYC's hot night spots including Fez, CBGB's, Piano's and the Living Room.
