Played all over the world and followed by millions of people, football has a uniquely wide appeal. The immense wealth that is presently flowing into the sport is testimony to the unrivalled entertainment it provides. Yet it is more than entertainment. It is more than a sport. The Beautiful Game is a metaphor for life itself. It contains timeless qualities that never fail to inspire each successive generation of followers. Playing the Beautiful Game contains 101 transformational and thought-provoking verses which encourage the reader to cultivate these sublime qualities so that they may play the game and live their life with greater presence, understanding and success. Whether you play the game, follow a different sport or are looking to sharpen your edge at work, Playing the Beautiful Game is a unique and accessible self-development book that will inspire and challenge you to do whatever it is that you do more beautifully, effectively and gracefully.
